2.2. According to the prosecution, on 02.06.2023, temple festival was conducted in Sri Kalamega Perumal Kovil at Thirumohur, Madurai District. In the said festival, when the cultural programme namely, 'Aadal Padal' event was conducting, there was a clash between two community people and a number of vehicles belongs to one of the community were destroyed. Because of that, there was fight between two community people. In the said occurrence, number of persons have sustained injuries. So, they were admitted in the Rajaji Government Hospital, Madurai. Hence, the first respondent Police registered a case in Crime No.195 of 2023 against the appellant and the other accused persons, for the offences under Sections 147, 148, 294(b), 452, 323, 324 and 506(2) of IPC, Section 3 of the Public Property (Prevention of Damage & Loss) Act, 1992, and Sections 3(1) (r) and 3(1)(s) & 3(2)(va) of SC/ST (Prevention of Atrocities) Amendment Act, 2015. Hence, he has filed a petition for bail in Cr.M.P.No.2183 of 2023 and the same was dismissed by the III Additional District & Sessions Court (PCR Cases), Madurai, on 25.07.2023. Challenging the same, the appellant

3. The learned counsel for the appellant would submit that the co-accused were released on bail by the Court below. Against which, no further appeals were filed by the complainant. As on date, peace is prevailing in the locality and the injured also discharged from the hospital. Under the said circumstance, he seeks to grant bail to the appellant.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the State would submit that there are initially 24 accused and further 6 accused were added. The appellant was arrayed as A11. He would further submit that there is some dispute arose between two groups of people and there is rival fight between two communities. However, he fairly conceded that some of the co-accused were granted bail by the Court below and the appellant is in judicial custody from 08.07.2023 and he has no bad antecedent.

5. The learned counsel for the defacto complaint/third respondent has raised objections to grant bail to the appellant by reiterating the submission made by the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side). He would further submit that the bail granted to the co-accused by the trial Court is not a ground to grant bail to the accused. The learned counsel for the defacto complainant further submitted that after granting bail to the number of accused, subsequent occurrence has also happened. In the subsequent occurrence, there is a allegation that the accused said to have threatened the witnesses. He would further submit that even though normalcy is restored, still there is apprehension of clash between two communities. Even though, the appellant does not belong to the rival communities, grant of bail to the appellant would result in tampering of witnesses and hence, he seeks fro dismissal of this appeal. He would further submit that in the event of bail granted, the appellant may be directed to stay away from the occurrence place.
